

D-Sub Series Location Change Notice

Manufacturing of select D-sub series connectors will be changing from JAE Philippines to JAE Wuxi, China in order to utilize available production facility capacity and man-power to maintain on-going long-term production.

1. Production Location Change

Pre-change Production Location
JAE Philippines

Post-change Production Location
JAE Wuxi (China)

2. Production Change Schedule

The location change began with lots shipped during December, 2017.

During the running production location change JAE has diligently maintain records of production documentation to avoid mixing production lots.

Due to the transfer of production equipment during the change, products may be pre-produced and stored to not affect customer required delivery.
